

As a member of the general public and citizen of this nation. I believe that the argument presented by these commercial interests, to broaden ownership ,are only going to turn profit for large media corporations. There is no benefit to individuals. When you turn on the radio in this nation you expect to listen to programs that will reflect every individuals taste and radio stations that won't boycott individuals music or voice because of corporate views.

God Bless America, and Let Freedom Ring